

THE UNITED STATES MARSHALS SERVICE

PUT A STAR IN YOUR FUTURE

Be a Deputy U.S. Marshal

The U.S. Marshals Service (USMS) is the nation's oldest and most versatile Federal law enforcement agency. Federal Marshals have served the country since 1789.

- Protecting Federal judicial officials - which includes judges, attorneys and jurors - is a high priority for the Marshals Service.
- The Marshals Service is the Federal government's primary agency for conducting fugitive investigations.
- Hundreds of tactical missions are carried out each day by the U.S. Marshals Service's Special Operations Group.
- The Marshals Service ensures the safety of witnesses who risk their lives testifying for the government in cases involving organized crime and other significant criminal activity.
- Each year the Marshals Service transports more than 390,000 prisoners and aliens via coordinated air and ground systems.
- The Marshals Service is responsible for managing and disposing of seized and forfeited properties acquired by criminals through illegal activities.
